

Privacy Notice for Regulating supported accommodation for looked after children and care leavers aged 16 & 17” and Regulating Supported Accommodation: tell us what you think Consultation 2022

Who we are

This work is being carried out by the Regulating Supported Accommodation Team as part of the Children’s Social Care division which is a part of the Department for Education (DfE). For the purpose of data protection legislation, the DfE is the data controller for the personal data processed as part of the “Regulating supported accommodation for looked after children and care leavers aged 16 & 17” Consultation 2022.

How we will use your information

The project will use responses received to the consultation to form part of the evidence base to develop advice to ministers and shape and develop policy before the regulations are laid and become mandatory to the sector in 2023.

The department has a statutory duty to consult on the 2023 reforms to the supported accommodation market that provides supported accommodation to looked after children and care leavers aged 16 and 17 and your responses will be used to ensure we are complying with the departments legal duties.

The nature of your personal data we will be using

The categories of your personal data that we will be using for this project are:

- your full name,
- email address.

Why our use of your personal data is lawful

In order for our use of your personal data to be lawful, we need to meet one (or more) conditions in the data protection legislation. For the purpose of this project, the relevant condition is:

- Article 6(1)(e) UK GDPR, to perform a public task as part of our function as a department.

Who we will make your personal data available to

We sometimes need to make personal data available to other organisations. These might include contracted partners (who we have employed to process your personal data on our behalf) and/or other organisations (with whom we need to share your personal data for specific purposes).

Where we need to share your personal data with others, we ensure that this data sharing complies with data protection legislation. For the purpose of this project:

“The Department will be contracting an external analyst to prepare an analytical report of the consultation responses. Identifiable data (such as names and email addresses) will not be passed on to the analyst in terms of names and contact details but please keep this in mind when providing responses to open questions asking for reasoning behind your answers. Please therefore prohibit from providing any personal identifiable information that may identify you or someone else in your responses.”

How long we will keep your personal data

The Department for Education will keep your personal data in line with our data policy to ensure data is kept for a minimum of 18 months after the collation and for a maximum of 6 years. We are developing reforms to the sector and the data will be used to develop policy and advice to ministers.

Your data protection rights
